At Aberdeen Standard Investments (ASI), we are responsible investors. As such, we ensure environmental, social and governance (ESG) considerations are embedded in everything we do. Our goal is to make a difference – for our clients, society and the wider world. It’s about doing the right thing, while aiming to achieve our clients’ long-term financial goals. Here’s how this applies to our active Equity team.

Our core beliefs
There are three reasons why we think it’s vital to integrate ESG factors into our equities process.

ESG factors are financially important and directly affect corporate performance. Indeed, those companies that take their ESG responsibilities seriously tend to outperform those that don’t.

Understanding ESG risks and opportunities alongside other financial metrics, helps us to make better investment decisions for our clients.

Informed and constructive engagement help corporations improve practices – protecting and enhancing the value of our clients’ investments.

Investment strategy and process
We conduct extensive and high-quality fundamental and first-hand research to fully understand the investment case for every company in our research universe.

How we do it
A systematic and globally-applied approach to ranking stocks allows us to compare companies consistently on their ESG credentials – both regionally and against their peer group. Some of the key questions we ask are detailed below.

• How material are ESG issues for this company – and how are they being addressed?
• What is our assessment of the quality of this company’s governance, ownership structure and management?
• Are incentives and key performance indicators aligned with the company’s strategy and the interests of shareholders?

Having considered the regional universe and peer group in which the company operates, we then allocate it an ESG score between one and five. This is applied across every stock we cover globally.

Our engagement process
Our Process consists of four interconnected and equally important stages.

Everything’s Future
Invest today. Change tomorrow.
Gaining a fuller picture

We also use a combination of external and proprietary in-house quantitative scoring techniques to complement and cross-check our analyst-driven ESG assessments.

Staying engaged, driving change

Once we invest in a company, we are committed to helping them maintain or raise their ESG standards further, using our position as a shareholder to press for action as needed.

Our engagement isn’t limited to the company’s management team. It can include many other stakeholders such as non-government agencies, industry and regulatory bodies, as well as activists and the company’s clients. What gets measured gets managed – so we strongly encourage companies to set clear targets or key performance indicators on all material ESG risks.

Our ESG scoring system

Having considered the regional universe and peer group in which the company operates, we then allocate it an ESG score between one and five. This is applied across every stock we cover globally. Examples of each category and a small sample of our criteria are detailed below.

Our Equity team

To uncover the best companies globally takes resources, experience and the right people on the ground. We have over 140 equity professionals around the world, each meeting companies, conducting in-depth research and sharing their insights with the wider team.

Our central ESG Investment team and ESG equity analysts support the investment managers’ first-hand company analysis. They produce research into specific themes (e.g. labour relations or climate change), sectors (e.g. forestry) and ESG topics to help us understand and highlight best practice.

The Equity team also works with specialists from across the company, namely our credit, real estate, multi-asset, strategy teams and specialist quant and risk analytics teams. Lastly, the team leverages the knowledge and market views of more than 30 economists within the Aberdeen Standard Investments Research Institute.

This level of support means our equity specialists can focus on what they do best: delivering compelling market-leading investment insights for our investors.

“By taking account of ESG factors, we get a more complete view of a company and the risks and opportunities it presents”
